

Many students at Edgewater Elementary School ride a bike to school each day. The staff at Edgewater Elementary School recognize how important this is for both the health of our students and the environment. To support students who ride their bike to school, the school installed a bike rack for students to lock up their bikes during the school day. A picture of the bike rack documents this sustainability practice.