

Staff members at Edgewater Elementary utilize task lamps when working at their desks. 31 members of the staff utilize task lamps in place of their overhead lighting when students are not in the classroom. The use of task lamps reduces energy consumption. The staff is committed to continuing this practice to lower energy consumption and model responsible choices.