

Objective 1.1: Environmental Issue Instruction- 1st Grade

The first grade class learned ways to help migrating birds. They surveyed the windows of the school to see where collisions could be possible due to reflections. They then hung decals on the windows to help stop this. They also shared what they learned about helping migrating birds with neighbors in the park. They handed out pins and informative pamphlets explaining about collisions and turning off lights during migrating season.

